Terms & Conditions of Wildflower Art and Garden Festival 2017

1. I understand that the submission of an application does not guarantee me a performance at the Festival and that my application must first be approved by Council event organisers.
2. Maximum performance times are set between 10 and 20 minutes. Performers may request a specific time allocation; however allocations will be subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed.
3. Organisers reserve the right to withdraw any approval at any stage.
4. All performers are responsible for their own equipment. No responsibility will be taken for any damaged or lost equipment.
5. There is NO ALTERNATIVE DATE in the event of rain. If the weather is looking uncertain, a decision to cancel will be made by organisers on or before Saturday 26 August 2017 and you will be notified. If unsure, the performance group organiser may contact the event coordinator, Les Currie, on 0414 766 170.
6. Late applications will not be considered.
7. Council will not be held responsible if any expectations have not been met.
8. Late requests such as equipment or set up may not be met.

9. Policies of Insurance

The Performer / Group MUST hold and provide a copy of the following current policies of insurance for the event:

- I. Certificate of Currency (Public and Product Liability and Professional Indemnity) for an amount not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000.00)
- II. The performer / group indemnifies Ku-ring-gai Council against any claim, proceeding, demand or liability (of whatever nature) made in respect of personal injury or death or damage to property arising from the Wildflower Art and Garden Festival 2017.
